“Micro-Behaviors That Shape Workplace Culture”

Every workplace has them—tiny actions that speak volumes. A smile that sets a positive tone. An interruption that shuts down an idea. A quick “thank you” that makes someone’s day. These micro-behaviors may seem small, but they can make or break workplace culture.

The use of this official seal confirms that this Activity has met HR Certification Institute’s® (HRCI®) criteria for recertification credit pre-approval. To earn recertification credit hours, please log the activity to your online recertification application at www.hrci.org.

This Program, ID No. 700637, has been approved for 1.0 HR (General) recertification credit hours toward aPHR™, aPHRi™, PHR®, PHRca®, SPHR®, GPHR®, PHRi™ and SPHRi™ recertification through HR Certification Institute® (HRCI®). Please make note of the activity ID number on your recertification application form. For more information about certification or recertification, please visit the HR Certification Institute website at www.hrci.org.

NOTE: To earn specified (e.g. Business, Global) recertification credit for the sessions pre-approved for specified credit, do NOT use the Program ID Number assigned to the conference. Submit one record for each credit hour category, listing all session titles in the Program Description and total hours for each entry.

Example: If you attend five (5) Business Management and Strategy sessions and three (3) general sessions, you will submit two listings: one for all Business Management and Strategy sessions, listing each session title attended, and one for the balance of the conference hours submitted together as a general credit. The amount entered for continuing education activity should be the balance of the conference time when the time spent in the business sessions is subtracted.
